The third Workshop in General Linguistics (WIGL) was held at the University of Wisconsin-Madison on February 25, 2005. The workshop was organized by Nathan Culwell-Kanarek, with generous help from many volunteers. This year we had speakers and guests from Northwestern University, University of Wisconsin-Madison, and University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. Thanks to all the participants for their contributions and for making WIGL 2005 a success! Special thanks to our invited speaker, Monica Macaulay.

The following papers were presented at the workshop but are not included in this volume: Shannon Dubenion-Smith and James Pfrehm, "What Lurks Beneath: The Split Nature of German <w>," Yu-Chun Lin, "Chinese Palatal Fronting," Andrea Menz and Helena Rahders-Johnson, "The Role of Prosody in German Plural Formation: Template or Implicational Hierarchy?" and Katerina Somers Wicka, "Patterns of Cliticization in Otfrid."

Beginning with Volume 4, the LSO Working Papers are also available online. Visit our webpage to access the electronic version, or to access an order form for other print volumes:

The publication of this volume was made possible by a grant from Associated Students of Madison (ASM). We are grateful for their support. I'm also very grateful to Nathan Culwell-Kanarek, Iljoo Ha, Ryan Hanke, and Maggie Stack, who pitched in lots of help with the proofreading and reviewing process.
